Furthermore, he declared that Piotizin held strenge doctrines and performed hideous ceremonies The representations of the merchant were such as to arcuse the attention of the authorities, and they pro-ceeded to investigate. Philizin's house was searched by the police, and in the cellar a scene presented itself which might recall the old tales of the Spanish conquest of Mexico. Stores of gold revealed themselves in every direction; pots, pans, leathern bags, canvas sacks, all filled with the precious metal, and even a number of large casks, which stood at the further end of the vault, were gots of gold to the very top. The gold coins were mostly of aucient date. The in 1869 are wholly at fault.
